Budget and Revenues

Since its reconstitution in 2015, the Commission has handled an increased workload over the past 8 years

- The Govt. has revived DCW and made it an active champion for Women’s rights and safety, which can be seen in the increasing number of cases dealt by the commission
- DCW played a significant role in
 1. Passage of amendment in Juvenile Justice Act reducing the age of juvenile in conflict with law to 16 years
 2. Conducted 371 rescue operations in the past 3 years to rescue girls and women from trafficking

Mahila Panchayats: an innovative collective approach for community participation in dispute redressal

- 93 Mahila PanchayatS have been established, trained in legal issues, dispute redressal mechanism, laws relevant to crimes against women, given exposure about the existing legal position regarding property, maintenance, marriage, custody, etc.
- Mahila Panchayats itself acts as a "Watch Dog" and its members can handle delicate and family disputes
- 11,480 complaints have been registered with the Mahila Panchayat centers of the Commission in various communities from 2016 to 2018.
